Becoming a Trustee

Trustees of the Sheffield and Rotherham Wildlife Trust (SRWT) are volunteers who together lead the organisation in the planning, resourcing and delivery of its activities, so that it can achieve its charitable objectives. An enthusiastic, committed and active Board of Trustees, with a good range of knowledge, skills, experience and personal qualities is vital to the healthy and effective running of the organisation.

The Board of Trustees:

- lead the strategic development and planning of the Trust
- develop and adopt appropriate policies
- aim to ensure that the Trust is legally compliant and works to best practice wherever possible
- supports, guides and advises the Trust's staff and volunteers

The Trustees also play an important role in connecting the Trust to our local communities and the various significant external stakeholders – local politicians, businesses, community organisations, government agencies, Councils, influential individuals, etc.

On becoming a Trustee, we offer an induction to support Trustees as they learn about the organisation, our people and our work. The formal business of the Board is arranged around 4 Board Meetings each year, held on Thursday evenings at 7pm. This involves reviewing written proposals and reports sent out a week in advance to then discuss, consider and approve or otherwise at the Board meeting itself. The agenda for a Board meeting typically includes performance and financial reports, reviews of key risks or policy areas and proposal for new strategic opportunities. Additionally, there are occasional events, meetings, training sessions, workshops and site visits to which Trustees are invited.

Some Trustees are appointed by the Board to perform particular roles as Honorary Officers of the Trust (Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer) or hold other responsibilities (cheque signatories, Directors of subsidiary and other associated companies, representatives on external Boards and Forums). It should be noted that SRWT is both a Company and a Charity, and therefore Board members are both Trustees and Company Directors.

Trustees are elected by the Members of SRWT at the AGM and in the first instance serve for a term of office lasting three years. There is then the option of re-election for a second three year term after which the Trustee stands down.
